OCTOBER 26, 2012

Lincoln Memorial University – Collins, Louis Neal

The following had been included on the Sept. 21, 2012 agenda at which time the Commission voted to defer the matter to allow the department to provide more information concerning the investigation from the 1999 simple possession charge of marijuana.

Request is made for a waiver for a misdemeanor charges from 1999. He was charged in Monteagle, TN with simple possession of marijuana, illegal alcohol and illegal possession of a firearm, as well as no driver's license. The charge for the Driver's license was dismissed, since he had just forgotten it, as well as the charge for the possession of firearm. He plead guilty to the marijuana and alcohol, although they were not his, and a drug test later confirmed that he did not use them.

Also in 1999 he rented a farm in Claiborne County, and was charged with manufacturing marijuana and a firearm. The District Attorney advised him to plead to simple possession and he would see that the firearms charge would be dropped.

He attended WSCC graduating on 9-16-11. He became full time with the department on 6-18-12. Request a waiver so he may be issued POST Certification.
